

National Institute for Health Research

Industry Partnerships at Cambridge Biomedical Research Centre

Sandra Mulrennan, Health and Life Sciences Lead

One-stop-shop

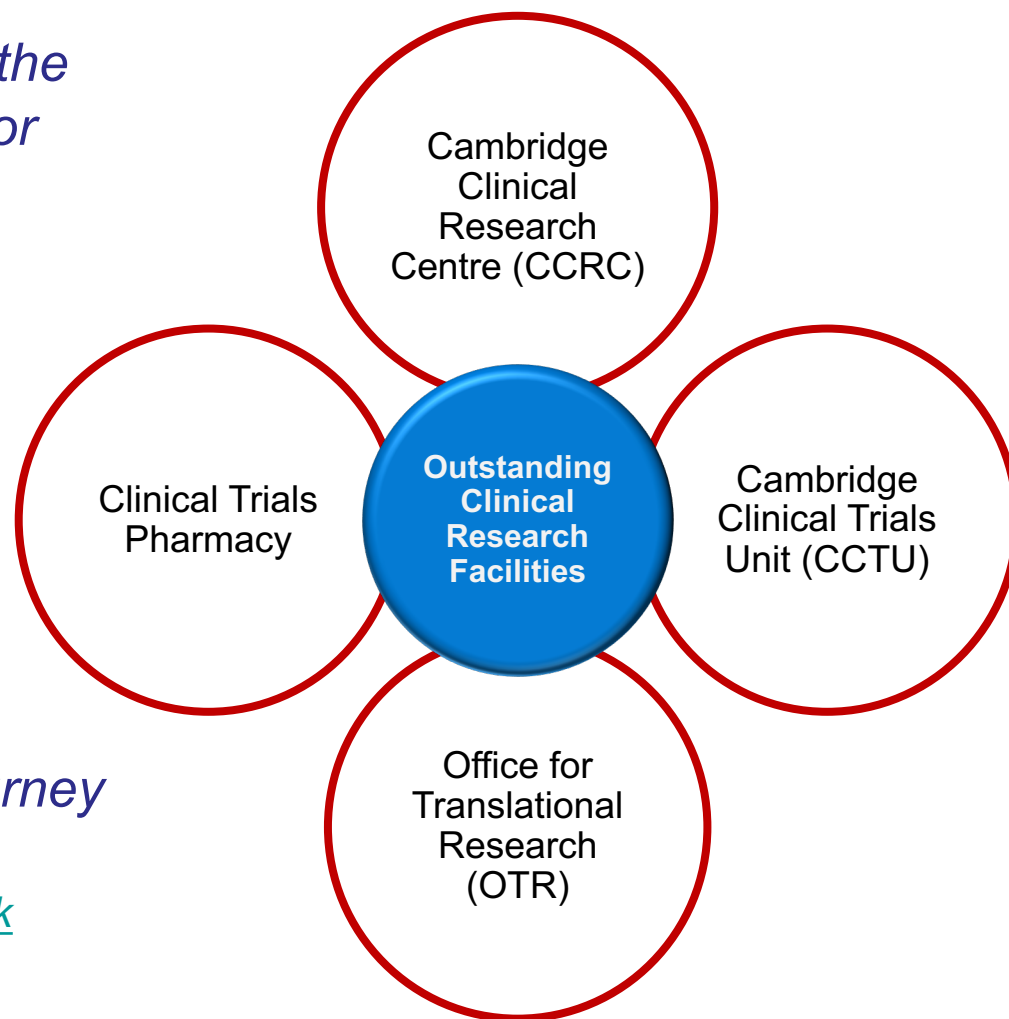

Bespoke assistance to identify the right combination of expertise for your project

We can help with:

- Costing
- Patient recruitment
- Patient and Public Involvement
- Protocol design
- Statistical analysis
- Regulatory approval

Get started on your research journey with us by contacting:

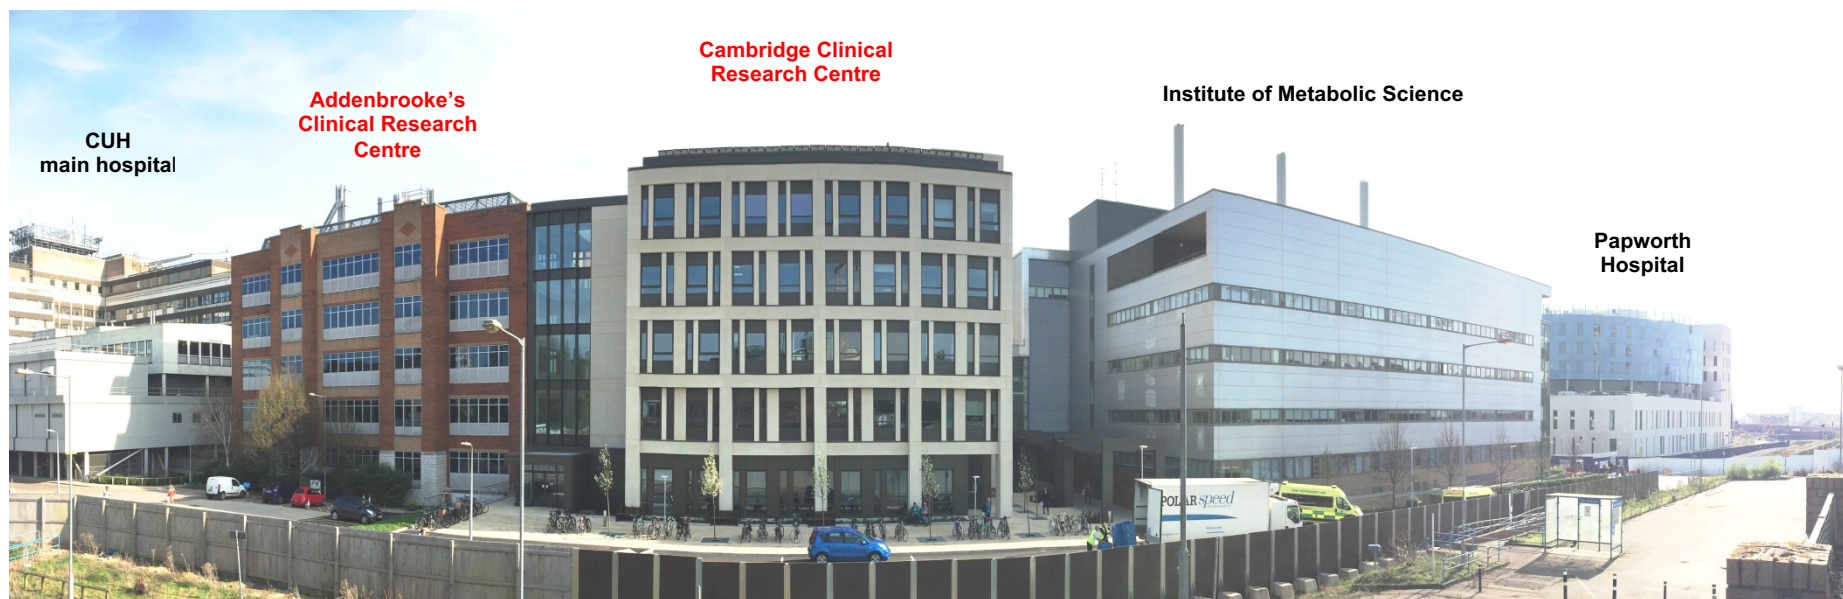

Ccrc.applications@addenbrookes.nhs.uk
01223 256754

A wealth of research support

Our Clinical Research Facilities

CUH
main hospital

Addenbrooke's
Clinical Research
Centre

Cambridge Clinical Research Centre

Institute of Metabolic Science

Papworth
Hospital

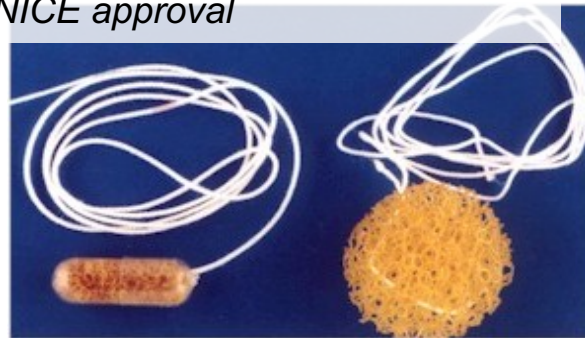

X 2 CRFs (15 beds)
Clinical Investigation Ward
Paediatric CRF

X 4 CRFs (20 beds)
Interventional Procedures Unit
Early Phase Unit
Metabolic Translational CRF
Adult CRF

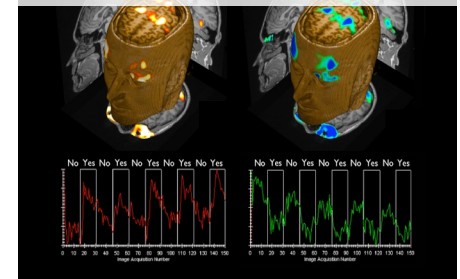

A sample of our success stories

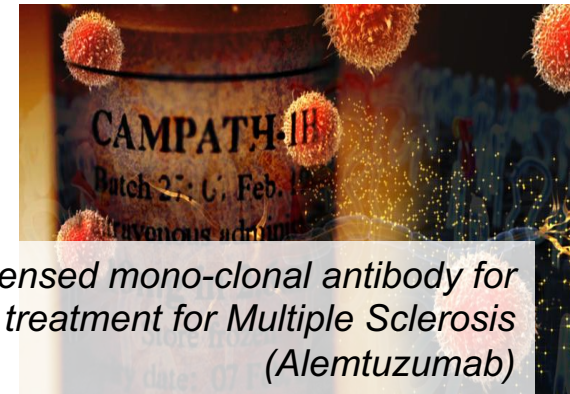

... award winning 'pill on a string' device developed for early cancer detection now being tested in >140 GP practices for NICE approval

novel fMRI developed for detecting sensory and cognitive function in low awareness states

.... 'world leading' artificial pancreas program for T1DM - x 20+ studies implemented internationally

EU licensed mono-clonal antibody for treatment for Multiple Sclerosis (Alemtuzumab)

Combining the best of Cambridge

World-leading expertise

State-of-the-art
facilities

Research-active patients

Co-located in the heart of Cambridge